Introduction

The Winnipeg Jets have a long and storied history with the city of Winnipeg. The team officially began play in 1979, but 16 years later was moved to Phoenix and renamed the Coyotes. Although some Jets fans continued to follow the Coyotes in the desert, many felt like they had lost their team for good. That all changed in 2011, when the Atlanta Thrashers were moved north to the city of Winnipeg. The Thrashers were immediately renamed the Winnipeg Jets.

 The Jets have not qualified for the postseason since moving back to Winnipeg in 2011. Up and coming young players such as Mark Scheifele hope to change that.
