Introduction

The Auburn Tigers are a powerhouse football program. They have had more than 10 undefeated seasons and have won more than 700 games. Successful coaches and strong National Championship teams have defined their history.

Auburn began its football program prior to the 1900s. It was one of the founding members of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) in 1933. Auburn has many traditions that are a part of its rich football heritage. The Iron Bowl is an example of this. It is an annual game played between Auburn and another SEC team, the University of Alabama Crimson Tide. The Iron Bowl is one of college football's biggest rivalries.

 Auburn running back Kerryon Johnson led the SEC in carries, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, and total touchdowns in the 2017 season.
