Acknowledgments

My career succeeded through the help of others and writing this book was a similar experience. I could not have done it without the review and suggestions of the following learned individuals: Christy Harris Lemak, PhD, FACHE, professor and chair, Health Service administration, School of Health Professions, University of Alabama at Birmingham, who pointed me in the right directions; the expert critique of John R. Griffith, professor emeritus, Department of Health Management and Policy, University of Michigan School of Public Health, who challenged me on several occasions and in several ways which all led to vast improvements in the final product; and the support and recommendations of Phyllis Biedess, former director of the Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System (AHCCCS, the state's Medicaid program). Also to Rick Jelinek and Elizabeth Cabot Nash, who provided critical information and ideas. To the following people who additionally contributed to getting this book published: Marilyn Greco, Rick Hamilton, Maria C. Speth, Bill Anger, Bob Crawford, my editorial assistant Alexandria Gryder, senior editor, Kristine Mednansky, and of course, Joette. And finally to Arlene Elliott, MHSA, who read the earliest version and provided me much needed support and confidence to move forward. To all I owe a great debt of gratitude.
