ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to thank my wife Catherine Enoredia Odorige who continues to encourage that I intellectually transfer my thoughts to the public space.

I am expressing my gratitude to János Herczeg for his concern and constant support for my activism. He has been a reliable friend in charge of the media production of this and other works.

I am grateful to my Manager Mcpherson Diegbe for his role in the management of the video production of this publication.

My deep appreciation to all Nigerians who voted me to lead them as the President of the Association of Nigerians in Hungary.

As the Founder and Global Coordinator of the European Coalition for Security and Democracy in Nigeria, I salute all coordinators of various European countries and beyond, for keying into my vision and expressing with confidence, that we share a common concern for the actualization of a second independence for Nigeria. Nigerian yearn for development.

I am always grateful to the government and people of Hungary which has provided a home for me and a safe environment for me to freely express my freedom of speech.

Nigeria will be free.
