LEXICAL INFERRNCING STRATEGIES
BY LEARNERS OF
ENGLISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Awni Shati Etaywe

DEDICATION

With a loving heart, I dedicate this book to my late father

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I cordially recognize my Dr. Khalaf Al-Makhzoumi from Yarmouk University and Dr. Samir Jarbou from Jordan University of Science and Technology (JUST). Their enlightening remarks and direction have enabled me to achieve my goal of completing this work.

With pleasure, I would like to recognize the contribution of all faculty members and staff of the Department of English Language and Linguistics at JUST, particularly Prof. Mohammad A. Nahar who guided me in times of confusion, and provided direction in times of loss. To all of my instructors I am thankful for their myriad knowledge in (applied) linguistics that ignited in me a strong interest in (applied) linguistics and TEFL. Many thanks go to my colleagues and friends at JUST.

Last but not least, words could never describe how grateful I am to my wife for her infinite patience during my study years. I am appreciative of my brothers and sisters for their constant encouragement throughout my journey of education. I want my children, Mohammed, Rayan, Hala and Yara, to be sensitized to the fact that I would have preferred to spend the hours invested in this work with them, but it is the culture of giving back.
