All eulogize is due to the lord of the worlds, the all-knowing, who thought man with the use of the pen, and thought man what he knew not. Completing this thesis would not have been possible without the help and support of many people. First and foremost I am grateful to my Advisor, Dr. Anagaw Derseh for his indispensable advice and constructive suggestions starting from proposal development to final thesis. I am indebted for Ministry of Federal Affairs for supplying me a chance to learn, financial and material support throughout the study years. I am also thankful to Ethiopian Civil Service University for the partial financial support of my thesis which helped me to cover some parts of my expenses. I would like to extend my heartfelt appreciation to my research participant students and respondent farmers for agreeing to take part in the research and provided me all the necessary and relevant information, without whom this paper could have not been written. I appreciate the honest cooperation of Dr. Zelalem Abdisa the under graduate program directorate director of Wollega University. I really also appreciate the excited behavior and the good manner that he show me in creating conducive environment for data collection in all colleges of three campuses. Thanks!.My appreciation also goes to my best friend Dessaegn Iticha(Msc) department head of political and international relation at Wollega University, for his early advice on whatever academic issues and ongoing encouragement whenever I doubted myself. Without his involvement data collection from Gimbi campus was impossible, also he deserves many thanks. I have a great thanks for my friend Waktale Feyisa (Msc) economics post graduate department head he was a best reason for my success in data collection from Nekemte campus. So, he ought to have thanks! for what he have done for me. Also I have a grateful to Fiqiru Waqoya dean faculty of agriculture at Shambu campus for his swift cooperation that made challenging data collection process earlier. I would like also to express my best regards to Mr. Nigatu Hambissa, Mr. Ayele Geleta , Mr. Eliyas Feyissa, staff of Guto Gida Woreda Agriculture Office for their absolute support in facilitating in-depth interview program with farmers nearby university. Also I have a special thanks for facilitators of focus group discussion part: Desta, Mandella, Geme, Latera and Dessaegn, without their involvement identification of participant student for khat chewer group discussion was impossible. Finally, I would like to thank my family, friends and all people involved directly or indirectly for the accomplishment of this thesis.
