ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to thank the Almighty God for giving me the strength and intellectual power to complete this legal research paper. The completion of this research paper would not have been successful without the efforts of several people. To my dear mother, Rachel Pahe, I offer my sincere gratitude to her for the moral, financial and material support she has been providing me with in my education from an early age despite the demise of my father. She has been a source of inspiration to my life.

I also acknowledge my siblings Nyale, Kazungu, Amani, Steve, Everline, Sarah and Amina who encouraged me to employ the best possible efforts in this research paper. To all the family members of the large extended family of Mwakuni who supported me throughout my years of study, I love you all.

I would like to thank the teaching staff of Moi University, School of Law for imparting fundamental legal knowledge in me that has greatly aided me in pursuing this research paper. I wish to acknowledge the invaluable assistance and guidance of Dr John Mutakha Kangu who supervised the carrying on of this study to completion. Special gratitude goes to the supervisor for his unending support and guidance in writing this paper despite having a busy schedule as a renowned constitutional and devolution scholar and expert. I was privileged in attending all his seminars on 'Devolution and Counties Law,' in my third year of study where my knowledge on devolution law was concretised. As the old Swahili saying goes: Samaki mkunje angali mbichi (Fold the fish while it is still fresh or raw), the supervisor had the opportunity to fold me and I'm glad to having learnt good research skills from him in the very beginning of my career.

To all my friends: Sophie Kafya, Anderson Mfano, Isaac Katana, Priesto Juba, Brian Komora, Giddie Trevor, Luka Mwangi, Liz Muthoni, Eva Onwong'a, Joseph Mugo, Omar Bungale, Victor Kaula, Mike Mutinda, Hussein Kusow and many others that I cannot mention by name who in diverse ways helped me throughout my research work, I say, thank you. To the mighty Wachemchi fraternity led by Sir Nem Kibet, I'm indebted to you for your encouragement and support when I almost gave up in my studies. Thank you all, one love.
